Princess Rag

Little girl's raglan cardigan tunic in stockinette. Lots of tricks and details: full fashioned decreases on raglan shaping; rounded patch pocket; circular hems for bottom and cuff with longstitch automatic facing on front edges; 1X1 ribbed yoke; single button closing on neckband. Make it extra long to wear with leggings as a tunic that becomes a cardigan as she grows!

Easy Peasy

Easy to fit, easy to knit, almost no finishing with this yarn. So simple but so many options. Place a closure at neck or waist, overlap or not. Use buttons, snaps, shawl pin or brooch. Turn up the bottom for a casing and add a drawstring. Try wearing it upside down. One won't be enough! Mid gauge and standard gauge versions given.

Little Scrapper

The body is knit in plain stockinette. The sleeves are striped to add colour without worrying about floats to catch fingers; the hood and front pouch pockets are knit in very short float fairisle using the stripe colours; stockinette bands on edges to encase floats to save making up time. Zip front completes the picture.

Waisted

Adult, preteen and child's braided belt in garter and hand transferred stitches, trimmed with fringe. Knitted in cream, it gives a look reminiscent of vintage macramé. Tie it on with a loose knot for a fun retro fashion accent.

Snap It Up!

Casual, loose-fitting cardigan with long, set-in sleeves. The 2X2 ribbed collar, cuffs and front bands are knit using a 2X1 needle arrangement to add extra body and prevent the bands from pulling in.

Get Lei-ed!
